DECEMBER 2014

Happy Holidays!

What's Coming Up ...

December's program will be the Wonderful World of Chocolate. Our presenter, chocolate-phile Geri Sander, will provide information about chocolate - history, types, and even health benefits. If you didn't already guess, chocolate will be served along with other complementary food and drink. What a perfect way to enhance your holiday experience! So mark your calendar for Thursday, December 11 from 4:00 - 5:30 p.m.

ATTENDANCE IS LIMITED.
PLEASE RSVP BY December 31

HAPPY 100th BIRTHDAY TO US!

Ingredients for a Special Event

Take a centennial event, mix with lovely ladies and charming men in cocktail attire (period outfits for the brave), and add a large dose of good food, drink, and music. Sprinkle with special guests and a mayoral presentation and you have the makings of the Assembly's celebration of the clubhouse dedication in 1915. Invitations have gone out and space is limited.

January 8, 2015, 6-8 p.m.

Reservations are now being accepted.

Tickets are $75.00 per person.

Because tickets are limited, you can mail your checks to Linda Fox at 693 San Elijo St., San Diego, CA 92106 or contact 619-223-0164.

All proceeds will support the ongoing renovation of the building.

Our Mission:

To promote literary, social, educational, philanthropic, civic, and artistic work, and to restore and maintain the Assembly building at 3035 Talbot Street.

Art Show 2014

By Patti Adams

Did you attend the Art Show and Artist Reception Friday night November 14th? How about the Saturday event on November 15th? Many of our members and directors were there for both days and proclaimed it a rousing success.

Nancy Phillips and Jackie Morgner co-chaired the event. Both artists in their own right, they enlisted some wonderful artists to display their work. For starters, Garret Goodwin's Urban Tree was installed on Thursday the 13th and will stay in place for a full year or until purchased.

We had stunning glass artists, several outstanding painters, extraordinary jewelry creators, and even a fabric artist. Attendees found much of the art to be irresistible and the artists sold many of their creations, donating 20% of their sales to the Assembly in addition to their entry fee.

The Summer Januaries drew a small crowd around the stage Friday evening with their harmony, violin and guitar. Elsewhere in the Assembly neighbors and friends enjoyed catching up and chatting.

Friday's evening Coco Savvy brought samples of their unique chocolates that paired well with the wines being served. Kona Kai prepared hors d' oeuvres on site, surrounded by eager patrons.

Saturday, the Membership committee chaired by Pam Fuchs and Hospitality by Dottie Laub provided refreshments for our guests. Many thanks to all who helped bring and serve and clean up over the two days.

The Art Show is about friend raising as well as fundraising. Many people stopped by who have not been at the Assembly in years, if ever. Our membership and rental activity are sure to increase due to the great exposure from the Art Show. The combination of the ticket sales and art sales netted the Assembly right around $3000.00!

If you didn't attend either day of the Art Show, we are very interested to know your thoughts on future events like this. Nancy and Jackie have worked since last March to make this year's Art Show a success. It would have been more successful with more ticket sales and more attendance. We are counting on you, the member, to help us with both if we do the Art Show again. Please share your thoughts with President Susan Hoekenga or any Board member.

And please share your thanks to Nancy Phillips and Jackie Morgner. They created a lovely weekend of fun and Art at the Assembly.

Meet Your Board

Each issue, we will be featuring an informational story on a board member.

Membership Chair Pam Fuchs

Pam moved to San Diego from Omaha, Nebraska in 1993, settling in a Craftsman house in Loma Portal that was built the same year as the Assembly building - 1913.

Long interested in history and preservation, in Omaha she served as President of the Junior League as well as President of two historical preservation groups, the Douglas County Historical Society and Landmarks, Inc.

She joined the Assembly in 2012 at the urging of her friend Ann Walker, who knew she was interested in historic preservation. Currently she serves as membership Chairman and enjoys working with all the tremendous people on the committee.

Pam also belongs to the Dana Unit of Rady Children's Hospital Auxiliary and is a Sustainer in the Junior League of San Diego.

Following in her mother's footsteps, her daughter Annie has joined the Point Loma Assembly. Her other daughter, Ali, owns a bicycle shop in Crested Butte, Colorado. She also has two four-legged daughters, Golden Retriever Callie and Jackie, a Bichon Frise.

She retired from San Diego Unified Schools spends her time playing golf at our Loma Club and enjoys art, music and theater.

POINT LOMA PLAYHOUSE

Presents

A Tuna Christmas

Written by Jaston Williams, Joe Sears, and Ed Howard. Directed by David Sein

Point Loma Playhouse is proud to present its production of A Tuna Christmas.

This hilarious show takes place in Tuna, the third smallest town in Texas, where the Lions' Club is too liberal and Patsy Cline never dies!

A mysterious "Christmas Phantom," who vandalizes the yard displays, and threatens to throw the contest into turmoil, disrupts the town's annual Christmas Yard Display Contest.

The subplots include Stanley Bumiller's attempts to end his probation and leave Tuna, Bertha Bumiller trying to hold her family together at Christmas time, and Joe Bob Lipsey's struggle to successfully mount his disaster prone production of A Christmas Carol.

The cast features Andrew Gumm and Greg Henninger, each portraying eleven characters. A total of 40 quick changes create these amazing characters for your enjoyment!

Friday & Saturday curtain time is 8 p.m. and Sunday at 7:30 p.m.
